Montmorency South Primary School values are Respect, Learning, Inclusion, Compassion and Curiosity.

Respect is taking appropriate care with someone or something that is important. We respect ourselves, our school and each other, and understand that our attitudes and behaviours have an impact on the people around us.

Learning is a commitment to developing new knowledge, skills and understandings. We enable everyone the opportunity to develop the dispositions to learn and progress at their entry point.

Inclusion is being made part of something. It is about valuing other's differences and ensuring that everyone feels welcome and valued. We practice inclusion by appreciating and treating everyone as equals.

Compassion is having concern and empathy for all. We show compassion when we are sensitive to others by taking deliberate action to be kind and thoughtful particularly when someone is hurting.

Curiosity is having a desire to learn and understand something, driven simply for the sake of gaining knowledge. We show curiosity when we are eager to learn through exploration and investigation.
